6 ABC Thanksgiving Day Marching Bands

Marching Bands are a very integral part of any successful parade. The pageantry, music selections, colors, marching style, and auxiliary contributions, displayed by marching bands, help create a stunning presentation. This appealing presentation adds an unparalleled contribution to a parade.

Of course the 6 ABC Thanksgiving Day Parade is no exception, as over thirty high school, college and specialty bands apply for our coveted fifteen marching band positions each year.

Two of the nineteen marching bands are local and have marched in the last 20+ Thanksgiving Day Parades in Philadelphia. They are the Pennsbury High School Marching Band from Fairless Hills, Pennsylvania, and the A.I. duPont High School Marching Band from Wilmington, Delaware. The traditional appearance of these two bands allows for only thirteen marching bands from around the world to be selected for the oldest Thanksgiving Day Parade in the country!

Since our three hour live television broadcast is a very complex mix of entertainment, gigantic balloons, magnificent floats, stars, and special production numbers, we are limited to the number of marching bands that appear in the parade, as we want to offer a special blend of all parade elements to create a spectacular television presentation.

BAND REQUIREMENTS:

Marching bands must have a membership of 100+ students to be considered for our parade. Bands smaller than 100 students are encouraged to apply once membership has increased.

Bands from all over the world are encouraged to apply, regardless of style (i.e. Dance, Military, Drum Corps style, Traditional, Scottish, etc). Variety in marching band styles is an important ingredient to our overall parade presentation.

MARCHING BAND APPLICATION DEADLINES:

2011 parade – February 25, 2011

2012 parade – February 25, 2012

Selections and announcements of bands will be made by February 25th of the particular year; however, bands are accepted on a rolling basis. The enclosed application is valid thru the 2012 parade year.

Marching Band Directors, please remember, once you received a marching band application from our office, it is important to note that we must receive a video-tape or DVD of the band in a recent parade appearance to be considered for our parade.
